Montevideo, Jan. 12th, 4.30 p.m.

Very grave reports going about with regard to the Government House.

Mr. McEachen and Dr Requena are supposed to be decided to resign office, and the President, it is currently reported, has said that if Mr McEachen retires from office, he will also resign the Presidency of the Republic.

The disgust is very general, and the Bolsa has responded by not making any transactions in public funds.

ENTRE RIOS.

The speech of the Governor of Entre Rios on the opening of his Chambers may always have some interest for many of our readers, since, after Buenos Ayres and Santa Fe, it is the province that holds most foreign capital, and whose industries are being developed by the brawny arm of the foreigner. In former years Entre Rios figured more prominently in its estancia and sheepfarming business, and we attribute to revolution, excessive taxation, and bad Government the great falling off of this fine province in these branches; even its saladero industry has declined, and 20 years ago Entre Rios was immensely more flourishing than to-day; yet the land is rich, the pasturage good, and cattle when cared and sheep when tended give almost as much as in Buenos Ayres. Some of the finest and best estancias in the Plate are in Entre Rios, and we feel quite certain that, with a little more push on the part of the Government, and the exemption of many struggling industries from taxation, Entre Rios would soon come to the front again, and take her former rank in public opinion.

During the past year, spite of the Tejedor war, Entre Rios can point to some improvements. The scheme for erecting twenty bridges throughout the province, over the principal rivers, has been delayed, but will be carried out, and the Government is only waiting the return of the 'Empresario' from the U. States to conclude the contract. The contract for building a large bridge over the Gualeguay, on the the road between Parana and Uruguay, is signed by the National Government, and the works will be at once carried out. Private parties have put up small bridges and 'balsas' on many of the rivers, to facilitate trade, and a bridge is now going up over the Gualeguay, in front of Federacion, required for the important timber trade of the district.

Another most important enterprize proposed is the extension of the Eastern Argentine Railway southwards to Capinchuelo, which will, it is thought, be carried out. A port for foreign shipping for the rich products of Misiones and Corrientes is required, and the Governor says he thinks the best would be Concepcion del Uruguay, which, by bridging over the arroyo Vera or Molino, and running a railway to Concordia, would meet the difficulty. Mr Vicente Matti proposes to unite Gualeguaychu with Concepcion, and if Congress will grant the guarantee, the line will be made. We can assure the Government that Congress never will give any such guarantee, and, as for the grand trunk railway devised from Uruguay to Parana, calling at Gualeguaychu, Gualeguay and Nogoya, we believe in our day it will not be built, and the Entre Rios Governnment, instead of dreaming of such lines, must content itself with its splendid river communication, and start more colonies. The Governor says, that sheepfarming and wire-fencing are on the increase, which is indeed good news, and within the last few months there has been a most extraordinary demand for Government lands, and over two thousand applications to buy are now before the Government. Why the Government does not at once sell is the wonder.

Last year, the Governor says, was not the very best for the colonies, nevertheless, the colonies of San Jose, Chajari, Alvear, Monte Caseros, Perfeccion, Tres Febrero, and Hernandurias, are progressing very fast, whilst Rocamora and Federacion are monstrously hard up, and with the exception of the colony around Parana, all the 'ejido' colonies formed by Municipalities are on their last legs. A new native colony in Montiel is about to be started and the land marked out, and the Governor recommends more criollo colonies: he says, out of 8,000 colonists in Entre Rios only 170 are Entre Rianos, yet the Province, owing to the wars, is filled with beggars and poor gauchos who, if helped might make capital colonists.

The budget for 1880 was estimated at $1,130,000 fts. but the revenue only gave 1,079,210, leaving a deficit of 50,789: from this we take 34,000 which the National Government owes on account of schools and the real deficit is but $16,789 f, which is about what the estancieros owe for 'Contribucion Directa' and rent and, but for the Tejedor war, would have been paid up.

The revenue for the year was made up so—

Taxes collected	792,226
Fondos Publicos	75,337
Bonos Territoriales	52,228
Letras	159,417

From the taxes collected the Government paid for service of the loan in London $f.106,005 and on the Fondos Publicos $f.62,605, and the balance has been paid away in salaries &c, but there is four months due to the clerks still; we always preferred first attending to the service of the loan, and the result is our bonds to-day in London are at 2 premium.

Respecting the Fondos Publicos the account stands so—

Issue in Nov. 1879	423,195
Emitted in Nov. 1880	28,000
	451,195
Amortized	64,200
Total in circulation Nov. 1880	386,995$f.

The Government settled at last the great claim of Fragueiro by issuing in payment $f.400,000 Deuda Interna, and the interest and amortization on which weighs upon the Treasury. Don Prudencio Sanchez, who sued it before the Federal Court, won, and $f.400,000 in Bonds ordered to be paid him, of which only 28,000 delivered for want of more bonds. The consequence is, if we add all these sums, we have to-day in circulation 786,995 Fondos Publicos. The interest on these bonds was not paid regularly, but the Government is paying off as well as it can, and last year paid off $f,62 605. On 1st November, 1879, the Bonos Territoriales in circulation amounted to $f.182,157, which under law 5th June, 1879, authoriziug the issue of $f.200,000, were emitted. Of this issue $f.99,882 have been amortized and burnt, and there remains out at present 179,265, which Government feels satisfied will be all paid off and amortized this year. As for the Treasury bills, they are all paid off save a small amount, which is not forthcoming, and therefore is supposed to be lost.

With regard to the London loan, Messrs Murrietta, who have lent the Government such valuable services, have applied for the adjudication of the tax on saladeros, to meet the service of the loan, and the Government has granted the petition, subject to approval of Legislature.

The service on the loan annually amounts to $f107,575, and the saladero tax gives $f,106,005; this tax has not given so much last year as in previous years, owing to poor condition of hacienda and the blow up last June. The amount due on the London loan is $f 796,978, but to this we must add advances by Murrieta & Co. 298,630 pats. Thus making a total due on 31st Oct. 1880 of $f.1,095,608. The Entre Riano Government owes the Nat. Bank 344,731 pats, and the money received for stamps is paid in to the Bank, which meets the service of the loan.

Public education in E. Rios receives the greatest care, 10,000 children go to school every morning. Mr Jose Francisco Antelo closes his chapter with some brief remarks on the troubles of last year and expresses a hope, in which we all join, that it will be very long before the country again suffers from such unutterable woes.

We trust that the Governor will, now that they have got a statistical office in Entre Rios, give us some figures to show the number of sheep and cattle in the province, the lands for sale, and the prices, &c. Several splendid Entre Riano properties are offering in the market, but there are no buyers, although on one splendid estate the timber is worth more than the price asked for the whole property.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

January 9th.

It is the boast of the party in power that they have overthrown the old stationary fogeyism of conservatism and placed authority in the hands of young and robust blood; and to a certain extent this is true. General Roca is a young man as well as a young politician. Undoubtedly he must bring new ideas, new men and new measures to bear on his administration; and it must be confessed the old regime had got itself into a groove that often degenerated into ruts from which the party often found it difficult to extricate itself.

I am firmly convinced, for instance, that our present Minister of the Interior, who has made himself no groove as yet, and can act independently, will prove a much more competent man than any Minister that has as yet held that important portfolio. Apart from his known talents, probity and patriotism, he has his reputation as a public man to build up. In republics the axiom of 'a new broom sweeps clean' applies with great force. It is true in some cases the broom is defective, and falls from the handle on the first trial. We must always allow for the falibility of human nature.

Possessing the opinion I do of Dr Del Viso, I feel quite certain that during his administration we shall see two great works completed, works that have been shamefully neglected and postponed. I allude to the works of the port in Rosario and the deepening of the canal at Martin Garcia. There are some steps taken towards carrying out the former, all, however, I am sorry to say, in a wrong direction. These works should be completed by the Central Argentine Railway Company, as the parties most competent and most interested in their construction.

Can be used with COLD WATER. Sole Agents MOORE & TUDOR, Maypu

The deepening of the channel at Martin Garcia has not yet been mooted, that I am aware of. This culpable and apparently unaccountable negligence must have astonished foreigners. Here is Rosario, the magnificent port for 11 provinces, whose Custom House gives a return of two millions of dollars, with an export and import trade amounting to upwards of ten millions of dollars, with her ocean trade relatively obstructed by a bank of gravel at Martin Garcia. Does it not appear astounding? But when we consider that the power of the country has been monopolized by Buenos Ayres, who opposed the opening of the rivers in the first instance, we shall then understand the secret of the apathy with regard to rendering the passage of Martin Garcia available to large class ocean vessels. Buenos Ayres wanted them to stop in her outer roads.

We may now hope for a more liberal policy. Let us have the channel at Martin Garcia deepened to twenty-five feet, Dr Viso, without losing any more precious time, and thus give the Argentine Republic two ocean ports instead of one. Rosario is of sufficient importance to the nation to have this justice done to her.

I have an agreeable piece of news to give you, although it is purely local. Dr Iriondo has nominated a gentleman to the post of Gefe Politico. His better instincts have prevailed over party pressure. We have not yet got over our astonishment and I may add our satisfaction. Notwithstanding that the Gefatura of Rosario is almost as important an office as that of Governor, up to the present time it was supposed that a slight knowledge of two of the three R's was all that was required. Dr Severo Gonzalez is of a good family, well educated and of independent fortune; although friendly to the party in power, he has mixed very little in politics. At all events the Gefatura will cease to be the head quarters of a fanatical political party. I will not say yet that Mr Gonzalez is the right man in the right place. It remains to be seen if he is capable of the duties of his post; but we must congratulate ourselves in having a man of his character nominated to it.

The Aduana of Rosario has produced a revenue of 1,830,000 dollars This shows a considerable progress. It is nearly two hundred and fifty thousand more than in 1879. The official value of exports from our port was a little over six millions, and that of imports a little less than five millions and a half, showing a balance in our favour of half a million of fuertes. Amongst the imports that are free of duty are sugar making machinery, mostly from England, and coal. Of the exports free of duty silver takes precedence; upward of two millions and a half of dollars show in the report, besides argentiferous minerals. Washed wool stands at a hundred and twenty thousand, native woods at seventeen thousand, and hay one hundred and seventy thousand fuertes.. Copper only to the extent of fifty thousand dollars. The value of barks exported reaches the enormous sum of nearly two hundred thousand dollars.

It is interesting to note the preponderance of England in our commerce. The value of exports free of duty is $f.2,923,000, of these England has taken to the value of 2,310,000.

The proportion to different countries is as follows.

England.....	79.05 o/o
Belgium.....	6.31
Brazil.....	5.62
U. States.....	4.05
France.	2.22
Banda Oriental	1.63
Antillas	0.65
Paraguay	0.29
Italy	0.18

The tables of duty-paying exports and imports are not yet published

The Vandyk is to leave to-day; she has been repaired here, as she was pretty well knocked about in her last voyage.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The R.M.S. Tamar is gone; she got away yesterday evening, five days behind time, a very unusual delay for a Royal Mailer. However the passengers will have a shorter 'life on the ocean wave and home on the rolling deep' than usual, as 'full speed' will be the order all through the run home.

The Chilian papers to hand show that the Legation of that republic will shortly be reopened in Buenos Aires, and a sum for the purpose has been included in the Budget for the present year. This looks as if our transandine neighbours anticipate apother diplomatic campaign about the eternal Limits Question. It will be hard for the best diplomatist in either country to find a single word new to say on the threadbare subject.

War is becoming every day more practical and business-like, and soon there will be nothing of chivalry or romance left about it, except the mere item of danger. The cannon of the Augamos, the biggest in the Chilian navy, was insured for its full value, just as a bale of wool or hides might have been. If insurance companies could be found to insure all the men and things endangered in a war, a good deal of the expense involved in the 'sport of Kings' (and of republics too) might be transferred from the unfortunate tax-payers to the shoulders of insurance companies.

The report that Mrs Terrero, daughter of the Dictator Rosas, had gone out of her mind is without foundation. The politico-pathetic comments of some of our colleagues on the sad imaginary event are decidedly diverting.

A Teutonic subscriber has favoured us with the following:—

Dear Sir

You always are speaking about 'British Interests,' as to-day about same during the Franco-German war, not Prussian, if you please. What on earth are those British Interests you have to save everywhere in the whole world?

According to my opinion they are the pocket, the pound sterling, shilling and penny, at least they called themself so in 1870, when fair Albion, in spite of her declared neutrality, sold for millions and millions arms to France, thus uselessly prolonging the war; and the utmostly fair Government of Great Britain and Ireland replied to a remark of Bismarck 'that they could not interfere with commerce.' That is what they call British Neutrality and British Interests. Is it not so? Please reply and prove me the contrary.

German.

Our esteemed correspondent pauses for a reply. There is no necessity for one. 'German' has given a most accurate definition of British interests. 'Interests' are everywhere the same, only Great Britain and Ireland happen to have more of them than the rest of the world. In France they are called 'francs'; in Germany 'Reichsmarks'; in Russia 'roubles'; in Austria 'florins'; in this country 'paper dollars' and so on.

The convict labour got out of the Penitentiary is becoming of some account. Last year the prisoners did work, in their several trades, to the total value of $1,200,000 m|c., their own share of which is $483,000, all expenses deducted. It is safe to say that they never before turned such an honest penny as this in the course of a single year.

The Nacion says that in one of the camp partidos there is a Police Commissary only 13 years of age. Go it, little man.

Something similar to the attempt to poison Mr Fea in Rosario took place in Calle Independencia on Sunday, a whole family being the intended victims. The poison was put in the water on the table. The husband and one child are recovering, but the wife and another child are despaired of. As yet there are some doubts, but not many, as to the poisoning being intentional.

A new pantomime will be produced at the Politeama to-morrow evening.

The Chilian Chambers have authorised the emission of another 12,0000 pats. to carry on the war.

There was rather a stiff blaze in one of the Customs' deposits in Calle Balcarce on Tuesday night, about 11 o'clock. Some matches and sulphuric acid had accidentally taken fire; but after an hour's exertions, the Police and Bomberos succeeded in putting it out.

The receipts of the Anglo-Argentine Tramway for the last 3 months of 1879 amounted to $983,803 m|c.

A madwoman was found in the main drain in Calle Peru on Tuesday. She had been there several days, and scraps of sensational novels of the lowest class were found on her. Her head became deranged through reading the vile trash.

Every morning now the papers contain at least one case of newborn infants being abandoned in the streets. We read three of these cases in yesterday's papers.

Custom House men, like editors are obliged to know a little of every thing under the sun. At Montevideo last week a Resguardo man, seeing a beautiful harp among the effects of a passenger from Europe, drew it towards him and held all the people round him spell-bound while he played 'The Harp that once through Tara's halls.' While playing he heard a noise in the interior of the instrument, and he had no sooner struck the last chord the 'custom' prompted him to investigate the bowels of the harp, which he speedily drew forth ber of valuable watches and a quantity of other jewels. If that Custom House officer had not had music in his soul, he would not have discovered the contraband.

Paramba! A Pelotas merchant, Dn. Adolfo Ruiz Diaz, held half the ticket, No. 35,999, in the Madrid Lottery, and so pocketed £50,000 sterling as a Christmas Box.

A sensation was caused in the capital of Chile last month by a cavalry soldier who had escaped from a Peruvian prison fulfilling a vow he made to the Virgin, in case he ever returned to his native land, to walk on his bare knees from the Convalescientes Hospital to the statue of General San Martin and back again. Crowds surrounded the poor fellow, and men women and children tried to persuade him to desist, as he was in a fearful state of exhaustion, and his knees lacerated and streaming blood; many clergymen also tried to dissuade him, but the gallant trooper waved them off, completed his self-imposed task, and then rolled insensible on the ground. The doctors say it will be months before the poor fellow recovers the effects of his strange pilgrimage.

Patti, the diva of divas, appears to have tired preciously soon of her Welsh castle. A recent exchange says:—"It is authoritatively announced that the fickle Patti has decided to sell her Brecon seat, Craig-y-nos Castle, upon which she has latterly spent a great fortune. The reason for the proposed sale is that Mme. Patti has been surprised at the high assessment placed upon the castle, and that she has been displeased by depredations made on her estate. The water-works which she erected at considerable expense have been destreyed, the river and land are poached upon for fish and game, and the poachers have had the audacity to come to the door of the castle to offer their spoils for sale, and the keepers employed have been frequently molested."

The Chief of the Agricultural Department has reported to Government that, if the Febrero Park is allowed to go on much longer as at present, the next place it will go to will be the dogs, as the receipts are utterly inadequate to its maintenance.

Several gentlemen met at the Revd. Father Martin's tusculum in the outskirts of the city to discuss the advantages of an Irish Catholic association, for the literary and moral development of young Irishmen and the sons of Irish parents. The Very Revd. Dean Dillon expounded his views in the matter and advising the formation of such an association if it were any way feasible; Dr Grace, lately arrived from North America, dwelt on the benefits derived by such literary clubs in the United States, where young Irish mechanics, clerks and tradesmen soon acquired a literary education and a facile elocution. Mr Davis opposed the project, and stated that it would not succeed; that young Irishmen in this country would benefit more by learning Spanish and entering into the political life of the country, if born here, than by remaining secluded and limited to the traditions, customs and language of the old country. Father Martin espoused the project and expected the very best results from the club. Dean Dillon feelingly lamented the utter indifference of young Hiberno Irishmen towards the Emerald Isle and their lukewarm Catholic spirit. Mr Feely thought that an association like that proposed was more calculated to thrive in the camp than in the city of Buenos Aires, where Irishmen were view and scattered. Mr James Gahan doubted the success of the association. Mr Ring, later alluded to the San Jose and San Salvador associations. Mr. M. Duggan advised to draw up a list of names and see if the proposal was popular. Mr E Casey stated that there was already a Literary Society in the city embracing all persuasions and classes. After recapitulating the many divergent opinions Father Martin said he would proceed to draw up a list of names and see if he would find adherents enough to launch the enterprise. At 11 p.m. the company broke up, and thanks were given to the Passiomist Fathers for their bounteous hospitality and cheer.

According to the Revista Medica, the prevailing diseases in the city for the past fortnight have been rheumatism, cholerina, and nervous affections. We know several unfortunate subscribers who contributed largely to the rheumatic part of the business.

Some Provincial Governments have queer notions as to fomenting immigration. It has transpired that the Public Lands in Entre Rios, which the Government of that province offered for sale last year, ostensibly to immigrants, at very cheap rates, and with a term of 20 years for payment, have all got into the hands of influential speculators, who ask an exorbitant profit on the lands from anyone seeking to purchase. This bit of jobbery will simply keep immigrants away from Entre Rios, and the whole province will suffer for the benefit of a few. Will the day ever come when Provincial Governments [illegible] honest, straightf

We cordially agree with Pampa that the masquerade season has commenced th quite too early for public nience or morality. The wo the police is unnecessarily increas by these orgies, and business and even domestic arrangements interfered with, as the young men who attend these places are not in the best trim for business on Monday morning after 'can-caning' on Saturday and Sunday nights, to say nothing of all the money squandered in suppers &c. Where it comes m is the puzzle, as, s 's 'patrones' are not wages or salaries spe masquerade season.

In spite of Mr Taffarello a gentleman named Mu come forward and pet Municipality for leave bull-ring in this city; he br than Mr T., but will meet t refusal. The next man who has the audacity to propose bull-fighting to the Corporation should be treated as having deliberately insulted that body and the citizens of Bue Ayres.

We second the motion of o league La Republica to the that it is high time for the to look after the filthy, ir trash on sale in the city books even in some of those aspiring respectable. Half the 'raptos other gross immoralities of th are caused by this detestable ture being the favourite m nourishment of such a large pr tion of the population, high, and middle, especially of youth.

Not a word of news from the Coast yesterday, and many peo now expect that the next news w come via London. The general op nion is that the Chilians have me with some reverse. It is also state that no telegrams in cypher are no allowed to come through from Chile. We heard yesterday that some very prominent citizens, who sympathise warmly with Peru, are preparing to illuminate their houses, in case the news, when it does come, be favourable to the allies. We hope they will think better of it: it would be a very impolitic thing in the capital city of a neutral power.

We feel great pleasure in welcoming back to the Plate Dr. Gould, the distinguished Director of the Cordoba Observatory, who has just returned from Europe, where he represented this Republic with the highest honour in the Metrical Congress recently held there.

We are requested to remind subscribers to the Memorial Fund to the late Dr. MacDonald that a meeting takes place this evening at eight p.m., in the School-room of the Scotch Church, to resolve as to the disposal of the funds subscribed, and the Committee trusts that all those who can will now make a point of being present.
